

Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form

Lead Researcher Information
Name:
Institution:
Phone:

Access to individual patient data from clinical trials sponsored by Jazz Pharmaceuticals should be restricted to individuals free of any real or perceived significant conflicts of interest, in order to retain objectivity in the interpretation of the results of their research. The source of these conflicts may be financial, proprietary, or scientific/intellectual, be it either professional or personal in nature. Conflicts of interest held by any individual with whom the researcher directly shares income¹ must also be reported and considered. Disclosure of any conflicts does not imply bias, but rather, demonstrates your commitment to transparency.

Indicate all sources of funding for the proposed research project:

¹ Individuals with whom the committee member directly shares income include spouse, domestic partner and dependent children.

Indicate by marking YES or NO if any of the arrangements of concern, as described below, apply and provide additional details as necessary.

Independence from Requested Trial(s)

Are you, or any individual with whom you directly share income, independent from the trial(s) for which you have requested data? This includes independence from the Sponsor, competitors, or any other institution or organization with a commercial interest in the product(s) studied; IRBs, regulatory agencies, trial investigators, steering committee, and advisory board involved with the trial; clinical care of the trial participants; and any other capacity related to conduct and/or management of the trial(s). Relationships with individuals in trial leadership positions as well as emotional involvement in the trial(s) (e.g., close relative is a trial participant) should also be disclosed.
